Matthew 7:7-10 (NLT)

<sup>7</sup> “Keep on asking, and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you. <sup>8</sup> For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And to everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. <sup>9</sup> “You parents—if your children ask for a loaf of bread, do you give them a stone instead? <sup>10</sup> Or if they ask for a fish, do you give them a snake? Of course not!

Matthew 7:11-12 (NLT)

<sup>11</sup> So if you sinful people know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give good gifts to those who ask him. <sup>12</sup> “Do to others whatever you would like them to do to you. This is the essence of all that is taught in the law and the prophets.

Luke 11:5-8 (NLT)

<sup>5</sup> Then, teaching them more about prayer, he used this story: “Suppose you went to a friend’s house at midnight, wanting to borrow three loaves of bread. You say to him, <sup>6</sup> ‘A friend of mine has just arrived for a visit, and I have nothing for him to eat.’ <sup>7</sup> And suppose he calls out from his bedroom, ‘Don’t bother me. The door is locked for the night, and my family and I are all in bed. I can’t help you.’ <sup>8</sup> But I tell you this—though he won’t do it for friendship’s sake, if you keep knocking long enough, he will get up and give you whatever you need because of your shameless persistence.

Matthew 6:10

<sup>10</sup> Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

The way you pray for your own needs should be the way you pray for other's needs.

James 4:2-3

<sup>2</sup> You want what you don't have, so you scheme and kill to get it. You are jealous of what others have, but you can't get it, so you fight and wage war to take it away from them. Yet you don't have what you want because you don't ask God for it.<sup>3</sup> And even when you ask, you don't get it because your motives are all wrong—you want only what will give you pleasure.

Have you ever thanked God for unanswered prayers?

Jeremiah 29:13

13 If you look for me
wholeheartedly, you
will find me.

Confucius- What
you do not want
done to yourself, do
not do to others

The attitude which says, 'I must do no harm to people,' is quite different from the attitude which says, 'I must do my best to help people

1 John 2:10-11 (NLT)

<sup>10</sup> Anyone who loves another brother or sister is living in the light and does not cause others to stumble. <sup>11</sup> But anyone who hates another brother or sister is still living and walking in darkness. Such a person does not know the way to go, having been blinded by the darkness.

Sometimes God does not answer our prayers immediately. We must keep on knocking, awaiting God's answer.

Jesus promised that we will receive, find, and have an open door for us.

Our persistence in asking
praying.

Ephesians 6:19-20

<sup>19</sup> ...that words may be given to me in opening my mouth boldly to proclaim the mystery of the gospel, <sup>20</sup> for which I am an ambassador in chains, that I may declare it boldly, as I ought to speak.

HAND:

This week I will keep on asking, seeking and knocking for _____?

Ask for gifts to meet your needs.

Seek the hidden things which you have lost and return from your error.

Knock you who are without, that you might be admitted within.
