What is the word

John 1:1

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The plainest reason why the Son of God is called the Word, seems to be, that as our words explain our minds to others, so was the Son of God sent in order to reveal his Father's mind to the world.

Galatians 2:20

I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Jesus has done what we could never do. He lived the perfect life and died on the cross to pay for all the wrong stuff we have done.

HEART:

Why obey the word.

The background of the image is a dark, moody photograph. On the left side, there is a vertical wooden beam, likely part of a cross, showing natural wood grain and texture. The rest of the background is a dark, almost black, gradient. The text is overlaid on this background in a clean, white, sans-serif font.

Galatians 2:20a

I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me.

Galatians 5:24

And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

Romans 6:6

We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin.

The present aspect of our salvation is Christ living in us by His Holy Spirit. God does not ask us to live the Christian life, but wants us, to yield to Him to let Christ live it in us.

Galatians 2:20b

And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Romans 10:17
So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ.

2 Corinthians 5:7
for we walk by faith, not by sight.

Romans 12:2

Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.
