

Discipleship from the Inside out: Men

Titus 2:6-8

What are those qualities for men that God wants him to focus on?

- Mentally - sensible. How clear thinking or self-controlled are you?
- Visibly - exemplifying good deeds. Is your lifestyle an example of good deeds?
- Theologically - purity in doctrine. Do you really understand and know the truth of the Bible?
- Socially - dignified. Behaving appropriately toward your audience.
- Verbally - sound in speech.

The background of the slide is a dark brown wood grain texture, composed of vertical planks. A horizontal band of a lighter, medium-brown wood grain texture runs across the center of the image, creating a visual frame for the text.

1. Sensible

“Sophroneo” gets its root from two words: sound and heart (seat of passions). It has come to mean sound judgment or self-control over your desires. Another way of seeing it is self-mastery; in control of oneself.

2. Good deeds

- “showing” is a present tense, which means a continuous way of living out your good deeds, even when no one is looking

- “showing” is a present tense, which means a continuous way of living out your good deeds, even when no one is looking
- “example” comes from the idea of being a model for others; making an impression.

3. Pure in doctrine

1. Interpreter

- II Tim.2:15, “Be diligent to present yourself approved to God as a workman who does not need to be ashamed, accurately handling the word of truth.”
- When studying the Word, do you say, “What does it mean to me?” or do you say, “What did it mean to Paul writing this in the 1st century?”

The background of the slide is a vertical wood-grain pattern in shades of brown and tan. The wood grain is oriented vertically, with the planks running from top to bottom. The texture is detailed, showing natural wood grain patterns and some knots.

2. Hunger for truth

- 3. Biblical decisions

Psalms.119:105,

“Thy word is a lamp to my feet, and a light to my path.”

The background of the slide consists of vertical wood planks. A horizontal band of a lighter, more uniform brown color runs across the middle of the image, serving as a backdrop for the text. The wood grain is clearly visible in the darker planks.
